

Because Fayetteville CARES

Compassion is a choice, not a suggestion!

“Compassion is not an option. It's the key to our survival.” -Karen Armstrong

Compassion Fayetteville, facilitated by Dian Williams, is a group of volunteers who have coordinated their time and talent to bring COMPASSION to all citizens in Northwest Arkansas.

On January 18, 2014, Mayor Lionel Jordan issued a proclamation declaring support for the Compassion Fayetteville initiative. Compassion Fayetteville grew from the guidance of the International Campaign for Compassionate Cities supporting Karen Armstrong, a religious scholar and author, who created the Charter for Compassion. With the proclamation, Fayetteville joined a growing number of cities around the world who earned this distinct title.

We invite you to join us achieve our goal to collaborate, connect, and communicate compassionate actions together with area citizens and to date 81 business partners and 35 individual partners. Share with us your ideas, stories, and resources; learn from others and share your lessons learned.

Our request for your partnership is simple. All we ask is that if you agree with the Vision, Mission, and Core Values of Compassion Fayetteville, sign up as a partner to support efforts to build on our Compassionate City designation. We also ask partners to share information about our activities among your membership as you think appropriate.

What are the benefits of becoming a Compassion Fayetteville Partner?

- We will raise the visibility of your work by sharing your success stories on our communication channels.
- We will support you with venues to share resources and advice at events such as Compassion Cafés.

To become a partner, please send us your contact information: business or personal name, address, phone number and email address to compfayetteville@gmail.com so we may keep you informed and connected with us. We appreciate your consideration.
